OBJECTIVE

I am committed to your success! My objective is to help individuals, teams, and organizations become positive, productive, and results-driven through the delivery of top-quality communication-centered leadership development training programs, coaching, and consulting services.

STRENGTHS

- Claire Laughlin has a strong background in teaching methods and training design and delivery. Claire has been designing and delivering courses in various communication-based topics since 1993. Claire and her associates receive evaluation scores of 4.8+ (scale of 1-5) from program participants.
- Claire also has extensive experience in facilitation, collaboration, and event design. Claire's team routinely designs and facilitates long-term and large-scale events and executive and board retreats using dynamic and engaging facilitation methods.
- She has 15 years of project management and change leadership experience. As a consultant, Claire manages all aspects of complex training and consulting projects and grant-funded projects and helps organizations align around strategic goals. Many of our projects span 12 -18 months and involve hundreds of employees working in new ways.
- Claire's passion for breakthrough experiences, combined with her range of abilities in teaching, training, and supporting change, make her a sought-after coach for individuals and teams.
- She has a notable ability to manage client relationships and support partnerships. Most of our clients have been working with us for 5+ years. We attribute this to our dedication to understanding and meeting client needs.
